

Malvern Festival of Military History

Friday 25 - Sunday 27 October 2019

Malvern College, Malvern, Worcestershire

Britain's ONLY
literary festival dedicated solely to
Military History

- * FICTION AND NON-FICTION
- * AGINCOURT TO AFGHANISTAN
- * ON LAND, AT SEA AND IN THE AIR

SPEAKERS INCLUDE

Peter Snow & Ann MacMillan | Roger Moorhouse
Damien Lewis | and many other authors and experts

Tickets and full details please visit www.enlightenmentevents.com

Programme

Malvern College, Malvern, Worcestershire

Friday 25th October - Rogers Theatre, Malvern College

18:30	Dr Alisa Miller	Rupert Brooke in the First World War
20:00	MESH Theatre	The Soldier by Rachel Wagstaffe

Saturday 26th October - Gryphon Room, Malvern College

11:30	Damien Lewis	SAS: Italian Job
13:00	Roger Moorhouse	First to Fight: The Polish War 1939
14:30	Prof Gary Sheffield	In Haig's Shadow: Major-General Hugo De Pree
16:00	Annabel Venning	To War with the Walkers
17:30	Peter Snow & Ann MacMillan	War Stories: Gripping Tales of Courage, Cunning & Compassion

Sunday 27th October - Gryphon Room, Malvern College

10:00	Dr Peter Caddick-Adams	D-Day Disaster: Could the Germans Have Won?
11:30	Tim Clayton	This Dark Business: The Secret War against Napoleon
13:00	Maj Gen Mungo Melvin	Sevastopol's Wars: Four Crimean Conflicts
14:30	Dilip Sarkar	'I Knew the Few' The Stories of the Last Surviving Pilots of the Battle of Britain
16:00	Lt Gen Cedric Delves & Danny West	Across an Angry Sea: The SAS in the Falklands War